

MEDIA RELEASE

22/11/2017

PEER is leading the way in providing healthy workplace initiatives!

On Thursday 16 November, Group Training Australia (SA) held their annual Group Training South Australian Conference Dinner at Mt Lofty House.

PEER was awarded the Healthy Workers Group Training Organisation Award. This award aims to recognise a Group Training Organisation who has shown leadership and commitment to supporting the Healthy Workers Healthy Futures Initiative.

PEER was successful in winning this award for their strong commitment in providing healthy workplace programs to staff, apprentices and host employers. PEER CEO, Peter Nolan, was committed in supporting PEER's Health and Wellbeing Team develop a 12-month action plan of different health topics each month, that provided a range of different activities and events throughout the year.

Thank you to Kylie Cocks from Group Training Australia (SA) and all who have supported PEER in providing staff, apprentices and host employers a healthier workplace.

Contact Information:

Demi-Marie Hoppo
Communications & Marketing Coordinator
demih@peer.com.au
8348 1200
Peer.com.au

About us:

For 30 years PEER have been leading the skill development of South Australia in Plumbing, Electrical, Data Communications and Refrigeration through apprenticeships and training. In this time PEER has trained over 45,000 people and 3,000 apprentices. PEER has a 90% completion rate and 95% of their apprentices are employed in their chosen trade on completion. This is achieved through their partnerships with over 250 host organisations.